Most of the bans these users receive are handed out by administrators but every once in a while a user will get banned for a "troll" video or similar reason. Some are also apparently banned because they made potentially offensive comments in the chatbox, not for any type of post or action that breaks the TOS.

There needs to be an authority on the game just like there is one for Steam that will give out reports about inappropriate content as well as any other updates and problems that happen within the game such as glitches and server problems.

I really liked playing my own games because it was fun to design a new world for my friends and myself. In my game I could make up anything I wanted. I could add trains, people, animals and pretty much anything else you can think of. I also liked making my own avatar because it gives me a lot of choices in making the way they look. Another thing I was really interested in was Roblox role play which is basically acting like someone else for a little while. You can choose one of your friends or even make up a new person and act like them until you want to stop again. This is good for kids because they get to learn how to act like they're someone else. It's also good for when they have to act in school and it can teach them a lot of things.

I have been playing roblox games for about two years now. I started out with one of the mini-games (Hotel Tycoon 2). This game was very simple; all you had to do was buy a hotel and look after your guests. As time went on, my friends and I found a new game we wanted to play together (Battlefield 3). It was similar to Call of Duty with better graphics. We liked the game so much that we wanted to transfer our characters from Hotel Tycoon 2 into Battlefield 3. One night, my friend and I were playing on roblox and entered into a "lobby". In a lobby, you can find friends who are online playing games or creating new ones. We had two other friends join in and we started talking about which game we wanted to play together. The next day we all decided on Robloxian Life.
