According to a report by "The Guardian", Roblox has been criticized for being a "digital playground" that involves more than 50% of their users under the age of 18. The report states that there are over 200 million players on Roblox who have access to weapons and themes that include sexual references and violence. They also said that Roblox emphasizes the idea of user privacy which can be seen in their games by having players invite other users via email or text messages.

ROBLOX is a company characterized by its community-based culture. This is reflected in its games, which are generally hosted on the website (as opposed to the product), and as a result, are built by users for users. The developers at ROBLOX have stated that they are completely open to third party development—the only restriction on what is considered acceptable and permissible is that all products must be compatible with ROBLOX's Terms of Service. Whether ROBLOX soft products will be accepted into the Steam platform is still unconfirmed.

Mobile App: On September 5th, 2021, ROBLOX released their first official mobile app for iOS and Android devices. The app has various features such as the ability to customize avatars, the ability to chat with other Robloxians, even add people as friends. It also allows users to play games that they can't play on their website.

On December 20th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they would be adding system tokens to enable their users to "pre-order" an item before it is put on sale. This way users can give feedback and ROBLOX could make changes if necessary.[26]. In late 2021 when the game was seemingly more popular than ever, numerous reports were made about a player called "unikraken," as well as his group of friends he allowed in his places. This user was not banned from the site for a long time, which attracted hordes of people to his server. The servers would become infested with bots, cheats, hackers and other fraudulent activities that it slowed the game for everyone. These servers have since been taken down and ROBLOX has removed as much of these malicious players' information as they could.[27]

One of the most popular ROBLOX games was "Hacker Escape", which was one of the most visited blogs on ROBLOX prior to 2021. It was a game where the hacker got into an abandoned house, and used numerous exploits to obtain admin privileges, allowing him/her to modify certain aspects of the game. This blog caused heavy controversy in 2021 because it allowed hackers to manipulate and change the settings on their games without consent from ROBLOX. However, after the release of version 1.0, this blog became outdated because developers started using hacks in their games that had not been discovered yet. In May 2021, ROBLOX launched a new blog system to replace the previous one, this paid-for feature was created by Epic Events Inc.

On multiple occasions, ROBLOX has been hacked into by outside sources. In one of the more recent hacks (2021), hackers took advantage of an exploit to provide themselves with unlimited build tools in games. Users without knowledge of the exploit were forced to leave the game because the tools were infinite and other players could not stop them. This issue was not fixed until two days later. [9] ROBLOX has a rule against using bots (automated scripts that allow players to automatically perform actions) but this rule can be easily bypassed due to the fact that users are able to easily create incredibly powerful bots with simple scripting. The easier ROBLOX makes it for users to create powerful scripts, the more likely they are going to be used in botting and/or spamming games. This is one of the reasons why user-created games like "The Plaza" have been taken down.

Premium game mechanics can also be implemented in free games. However, due to the fact that all premium features are only available in Builder's Club, in most cases they will if there is no way for the developer to observe this from a third-party mod or script perspective, then it can only be done via a Builders Club Premium.[54]
